Speaking on the Q2 FY25 performance, Pallak Seth, Executive Vice Chairman, said "As evident from our recent performance, we are back on track to achieve our long-term targets. During the quarter, we have witnessed strong growth across geographies, categories and service offering for our key customers. In the short term, steady interest rates and easing inflation across geographies increases our optimism. We remain vigilant, ready to adapt and refine our approach to stay resilient and responsive in a dynamic landscape"

"We're thrilled at our growth trajectory which is a testament to the impact of our strategic initiatives and resilience of our business model. Our expanding order book is a clear indicator of the momentum we are building. We anticipate continued profitability enhancements in the coming quarters, fuelled by operating leverage, new verticals reaching scale and unlocking growth potential, along with capitalising on strategic synergies. Our recent progress underscores our commitment to delivering sustainable, long-term profitable growth.", said Sanjay Jain, Group CEO.
